Invitation to Rest

Read Matthew 11:28-30: "Come to me, all of you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take up my yoke and learn from me, because I am lowly and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Jesus tells us to come to Him. We are invited into a relationship with Jesus and we are not asked to do anything or change anything before we respond to His invitation. Jesus welcomes us into His presence regardless of how we feel or the burdens of pain or sin that we are carrying. Jesus welcomes us and promises that He will give us "rest." We can stop striving and depend on His grace, His power, His provision for our lives.

Prayers of Surrender

Complete the contance with an attitude of currender:
Complete the sentence with an attitude of surrender:
Lord, I surrender Fill in the blank with one word (a burd	len you are carrying, a struggle or sin you are battling, any striving or performance you need to surrende	r).
Prayers of Confession
Psalm 63:1 says "God, you are my God; I eagerly seek you. I thirst for you in a land that is dry, desolate, and without water." Our hearts are desperate for God yet we turn to many things in a attempt to quench our thirst.	n
Let's spend some time confessing our desperate need for God – crying out to God by confessing need for Him. Fill in the blank with a prayer of confessing your need for God.	our
Lord, I confess that I need you to Let's	take a moment and confess our need for God in our families, church and community.
Prayers of Intercession
Now let's intercede in prayer for our homes, church and community. Fill in the blank with one we sentence as we intercede for others.	ord or
Lord, we confess that we need you toin our homes, church community.	١,

Prayers of Thanksgiving

Let's thank the Lord for his invitation to come to Him, to find rest in Him and to receive true fulfillment through a relationship with Him.